Off the Shelf and Online

The Cybils are a series of book awards given by children's and young adult book bloggers. The Cybils have only two criteria: literary merit and kid appeal. We don't think those two values have to collide. There are books we want kids to read and books kids can't resist. Somewhere in the middle, they meet.

Now in our third year, we're comprised of 90+ bloggers who write about children's and teen's books every day. We open our nominations to the public.

Maybe there's a book your child resisted bedtime for. Another may've circulated from locker to locker. And still another never seemed to make it back to the library by its due date.

You compile the list. We take it from there.

On the back of this flyer are our shortlisted picks for the best children's and teen books for 2008. We hope you'll join us for 2009 and beyond.

Dates to remember:

Oct. 1-15: Nominations open to the public
New Year's Day: Short lists announced
St. Valentine's Day: Winners announced

Simple rules:

Titles must be published between Jan. 1-Oct. 15, 2008
Books must be published in English, or bilingual with English
Only one nomination per genre per person
